

Calgary Regional Livestock Multi Judging Competition

Hosted by Mountain View 4-H District

March 16, 2019

Olds College

Hello members and leaders;

Mountain View 4-H District is happy to once again host one of the Regional Livestock Judging competitions in conjunction with Olds College's Judge It day.

We are still working to perfect our day, and would like to make you aware of several items:

- No judge's critiques will be held this year. Please review the 4-H Judging Guide online prior to the event.
- Classes will include Steers, Cow/Calf Pairs, Meat Cuts, Sheep, Dairy Heifers, Horses, Working Dogs, Seed ID or Recall, Eggs or Hay/Silage, Consumer Decision-type
- Competition will follow the Calgary Regional Multi Judging Rules, included in this package.
- SCRIBES – If you have a member who requires a scribe, please declare this on the entry form. No additional scribes will be assigned that day. If you have a member requiring a scribe, you must also provide a parent's name on the registration form to be submitted to the pool of names. NO EXCEPTIONS!
- Olds College Judging Team has extended the invitation to 4-H members to participate in their "Judge It" Competition. Registration and rules will be distributed once they are available. Please note that the forms and registration fees for the Judge It competition are not to be included with the Calgary Regional registration.

Parent volunteers are also welcome to help us out on the day of. We need approx. 20 volunteers to help make the day run smoothly. Details of what we require help with are listed below.

Lastly, in order for us to be properly prepared for the day, we will be enforcing the Late Entry rule – please have your entries & payment post marked no later than FEBRUARY 15. We cannot accommodate late entries.

We look forward to another successful judging!
